GENERAL NEWS.

Mrs. Ricthie, the widowed daughter of the late Gen Wadsworth, of Genesee, is reported to be engaged to the Duke of Rutland, one of the wealthiest peers of England. Mrs. Ritchie was some time ago the guest of the Lord-Lieu tenant of Ireland, and at a ball at Dublin Castle she excited general admiration.

It is denied that the Government has been selling gold at New York, at least the statement wants official confirmation; but under the apprehension that it was being sold the price went down on Tuesday at one time to 147-a difference of 6 per cent from the opening price of Monday.

We noticed says the Wilmington Dispatch of the 9th, yesterday a party of poverty-stricken colored women, who, we understand, made application to the Freedmen's Bureau for relief, and were turned over to the civil authorities to be provided for.

RE-OPENING OF ST. JOHN'S COL-LEGE, ANNAPOLIS, MD.—This institution, one of the oldest in the State, now liberally endowed by the Legislature, will open on the 18th of September next, with an entire re-organization. It is believed that no similar institution offers greater advantages to those wishing to obtain a thorough liberal education, or to pursue a partial course. These advantages are, in part, the following:

1. Extensive and commodious buildings, thoroughly repaired and refurnished, capable of boarding 130 students, and of accommodating more than three hundred; all situated in one of the most beautiful and salubrious localities, and affording ample facilities for a full physical development by boating, swimming, skating, and other healthful and useful exercises. There will also be a well-turnished gymnasium on the

2. A full course in the departments of study usually embraced in a college curriculum, and, in addition, a very extensive range of selection in Special Departments.

3. Special and prominent attention is given to the study of the history, structure and literature of the English language. Every student from the time of his admission to College will receive a systematic and thorough training in the knowledge and correct use of our mother tongue. 4. Unusual facilities are afforded for the study of German, French, Italian and Spanish, without extra charge. 5. A special and comprehensive course of instruction is furnished for those who design to teach. To all such students tuition is remitted on easy conditions.

6. An extensive course of instruction is provided in Physical Geography, National Industries and Resources, Commercial Law, Book Keeping, and such other studies as are required to prepare young men to enter successfully into business and com , ercial pursuits.

7. A carefully graded preparatory department, including Classical and English studies, is under the same general government, and taught by the same professors, as the Collegiate

MRS. CASTLEMAN IS PREPARED TO re-open her school on Monday, September 17th, at No. 38, south Pitt street, second door from St. Paul's Church. Her school-room is large and airy, and situated in a central and pleasant location.

While drawing no invidious comparison with the excellent schools already established in Al-exandria, she feels assured that she can offer advantages equal to any in the place. She appeals especially to the old Alexandrians, as having herself been a former resident, and the daughter of a native Alexandrian and more especially to the Episcopalians of Alexandria, as being the daughter and widow of Episcopal clergymen, who both fell, with the harness on, in the service of the Church.

Terms, per scholastic year: $24, $32, $40 and
